Letter from Major Jack Downing.

WASHINGTON, January 1, 1866.

DEER JEEMES:—I have arriv safe and soun in these diggins, have reconnitered the surroundins somewhot, have met with President Johnsing, a time or two, and I and he have laid out work enuff for a spell, so, Jeemes, you need not expect me at home for a month or sich a marter.

You remember, Jeemes, when I yused to attend Congress here reglar, Gineral Jackson was president, and I and the gineral then thought times was spurious and mankind ursurtin, so I and the gineral determined we would take charge of the government in good yernest, and I appeal to history to prove that we left the country in as happy a condition as it was possible for a free people to be. Some how, since the end of Gineral Jackson's administration, I have weened myself somewhot from public affairs; have quit Congress, moved to Pennsylvany, took to stayin close at home, but neether the wate of yeers nor distance from the seet of government has rendered me insensible of my country's honor and prosperity. So, reedin the papers, I saw Mr. Johnsing, the present Executive, was havin a lively time with the radicals in Congress, and I felt that it was my duty to give up my retirement for the public good, and come up here to aid Mr. Johnsing in administerin his government as I did Gineral Jackson, one of his illustrious predecessors. So, Jeemes, I am here, and Mr. Johnsing has dismissed his Cabinet meetin, and has to-day held a long consultation with me on public marters in the White House; in fact, Mr. Johnsing seems to have a liking for me and I for him, and I think I and he can administer the government successfully, at least we have determined to make the effort. To-day we held our first Cabinet meetin. Did you ever see Mr. Johnsing? He is a fine, hale, hearty old man of about 60 years, fond of good eatin and good drinkin, dresses in store close, and cusses like a trooper; I hope to brake him from cussin before I'm done with him.

At our meetin to-day says he—"Major, I want your opinion about the Munro doctrin, the Maximillion question, the Freedman's Buro and the finances, for I must decide these questions now; the country demands some definite solution of them, and I am a people's man, and must satisfy the public." Says I, Mr. Johnsing, you remind me of your great and illustrious predecessor, Gineral Jackson. You put sarching questions to your Cabinet, but I must answer liker Mr. Van Buren: From all the lites before me, as far as you have gone in your administration, you are obviously rite. On these questions, paddle your connoo in the same way, and you'll get there before long. "Get where?" says Mr. Johnsing. To the end of the row; to the place where the sun shines; where peace rains; where all the people of this country and Mexico shall clap their hands, laff, and be happy together. "Do you really think so?" says Mr. Johnsing. Pon honor, I do, says I. "Give us your hand, Majer," says Mr. Johnsing. "Lord send you may be rite, Majer, my dear feller. I have put my hand to the merchine, and I'll run her or bust; and I'll run it as I think fit, not as Sumner and Thad. Stevens wish to dictate. It is no bisness of thern, as I am aware of, and I shall not submit to their medlin with my department of the government. I hold that I am a co-ordinary department of the government, and that Congress is another. I cannot control Congress in their duty, and Congress cannot control me; and I do not intend that a few radical Senators shall presume to do more with me than the hole of Congress put together has a rite to do. So, Majer, for the future, I mean to paddle my connoo, as you say, and you may always have a seat by my side, and Congress may paddle thern. We will see who'll get there first. Majer," says he, "this Munro doctrin is the salvashion of the country at this time, and I'll tell you how. If we enforce the Munro doctrin, as we shall do, Maximillion is to get out of Mexiko in double quick time, and when he goes, the French and Orstrians will have to leave with him. And then what, Major? Why then, Major, Mexiko will have to pay us for enforcin the Munroe doctrin. And what shall I charge? The answer is ready. The session of the four Northern States of Mexiko, Shewawa, Coiwhula, Sonora and Lower Californy to the United States. Then all of the niggers of the South and of the North, and of the East and of the West will be sent to these States. I will place a strong gard of soldiers over them to preserve order, and invite and aid them in forming for themselves a government and passing laws. This will be the outlet from the States, for this class of our population. Then will be settled forever the question of nigger suffrage and negro rites, and they will be allowed to work out their destiny in that genial and rich country; to have their own schools and churches; to pass their own laws; to prosper and be happy, or to be wasted and come to extinction, as Heaven may decree. Then the nigger buro, and nigger corts, and nigger laws may all be dispensed with." Says I, Mr. Johnsing, will wor come out of all this? "No, sir, Maximillion does not intend to risk wor. And Bonaparte cannot risk war. He could sneak into Mexiko, while our war was progressin, hopin that this government would crumble to ruin in the vortex of revolution, and hopin that no power would survive to call him to account; but when he sees our Union restored, and Lee and Grant, Johnston and Sherman, Kirby Smith and Canby shakin hands and makin friends, he will give orders to his men to pack chists and be off. He can't fite us united; we would wipe him out; we would lift him out of his boots and strip off his pinchback crown at one snipe. We shall have no wor, but we shall get the four States for the niggers to live in." Says I, Mr. Johnsing, so mote it be, and so it mout be, if Bonaparte is as smart as he ought to be. But, come what will, I will stand by you thro' thick and thin, and we'll run the Ship of State like I and General Jackson yused to do. Says I, Mr. Johnsing, what has become of Mr. Seward? they say he is gone to see. Says he, Mr. Seward is a funny man. He was Secretary of State for Mr. Lincum, and they had some agreement with Bonaparte if he would hold off from the Confederates we would hold off from Mexiko; but things is changed—I aint Lincum, and I aint bound by Lincum's secret bargains. So I told Mr. Seward I would enforce the Munro doctrin, and he began to cry and to say he had a pain in his stummock and was afeerd he had worms, so I told him to take hollerday tell I could settle the Mexikan question, and so he went to see. After the French leave Mexiko, I am thinkin of drivin the Spanish out of Cuba, the English out of Jamaika, and the niggers out of Hayti. Majer what do you think of that?' Says I, Mr. Johnsing, that would be a glorious thing if they did not plead the statute of limitations on you; they have held these islands so long Munro's claim may be out of date. "That may be true, said the President, but the Munro doctrine, when properly read, means nothing more nor less than this—Amerikans must rule Amerika, and if these rulers aint Amerikan; and if these islands is a part of Amerika, then in course these rulers mus scsede and we Americans must take posession and rule." That is good logic and good statesmanship Mr. Johnsing. "Do you think so Majer, says he? Then I will it Majer says he, I'm afeerd the Southern people dont love me. Yet I am a friend of thern, and between us I'll tell you now my views about our finances just at this pint in our meeting. The South shall have justice at my hands. I tell you, Major, confidenteally, Mr. Lincum did not have the rite to set the niggers free; that was contrary to the Constitusion; it was dishonest; it was roguish, and the day is coming when the United States will have to provide money to pay for all ther niggers, and for all the silver spoons and watches and jewelry and blankets and sheep and hogs and horses and cows and every thing else stolen and burnt during the war, and this though it increases the debt will render its payment more certain. When the niggers and other stolen property is paid for the Southern people will have their pockets full of money or bonds, and can contribute their part of the debt and will not find it to their interest to repudiate. So it will be good policy in the government to pay honestly these debts. If the people get sober and honest they will have to pay them, and the people of the South ought to make out fair lists of their slaves and other property stolen by the armies of the United States."

Says I, Mr. Johnsing, why dont the Radicals want the Southern men in Congress. "Wy, Majer, says the President, the reason is obvious, the radicals is all rogues and rascals, and you know rogues are cowards, so these Radicals being rogues and cowards they do not wish the Southern members in Congress because they know the Southern men will charge their rascality on them in their teeth and they will have to take it like Sumner did his caning, so they wish to keep them out, and really I do not think it important for the South to be represented. I will veto every measure either unconstitutional or unequal and unjust." Says I, Mr. President, you make me think of old Hicory in his palmiest days; he knew how to take the bull by the horns, and when he did take him by the horns the bull knowed twas no use to resist."

Says I, Mr. President, what do you think of Marsachusits? if you dont wish to answer this question just whistle.

"Says he, my dear Majer, you ask me a tite question, but I will make a clean breast of it.—Marsachusits is by odds the meanest State in the world, it has been a disturber of our peace ever since the days of Woshington. There can be no peace with her. I wish the whole State, with her cod fish and Puritans Fathers and Puritan children and Puritan preachers and Puritan teachers, were sunk to never. She brought on this war and then instead of sending her Puritan young men into the fite, she opened recruiting offices in Virginny for run away niggers. She did send her Butler, and such a rouge as the world never saw walked and strutted when Butler led his army far from danger, as Grant says.

"If Marsachusits were sunk to the bottom of the sea we might hope for peace under my plan of reconstruction. You remember my plan.—First the Munro doctrine in full, the acquisition of four States of Mexika for the niggers, the placing of the national debt on a firm basis by paying for the niggers and other stolen goods, and making it the interest of all sections to respect the debt, and then general amnesty and pardon to all persons in the United States.

"And then will be ushered in a political millenium which will last for ages and ages to come." Says I, Mr. President I rejoice that I have lived to hold this Cabinet meetin. I do not yet give up the republic. I and you will rite the old ship yet. I and General Jackson never dispaired, and we never failed to tetch bottom, no matter how deep the water was we passed through; and now, Mr. President, I feel certain if you will pull with me, we will come out at the little end of the horn all rite at last, and the Union will be restored and public confidence reinstated.

Says he, "Majer, gives us your hand again, I am yourn and you are mine, so come let us take a drink." At that he pulled out of a closet a long two-story black bottle, full of corn whiskey, and takin out the stopper, by word of mouth, he took such a sockdollager as a Tennessean only can stand under, and I followed soot. And so our first Cabinet meetin broke up harmonious.

Jeemes, I hope you will show this letter to inquirin friends, and tell um I am doin as well as common when last hern from,

Yours till deth,

PROSPECTUS
COSMOPOLITE.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the City of Baltimore, of a monthly Literary Magazine.

There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York City, and the closing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country with no literary representative.

The COSMOPOLITE will be devoted to Literature, Art, Reviews, Scientific Papers and General Reading, and we shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North and from London and Paris.

All matter not original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German publications; and its Editors will spare no effort or expense to make it rank with the VERY FIRST magazines of the country.

As its name imports, we have established the COSMOPOLITE upon no sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be uninfluenced by any party or clique whatever.

It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following

Subscription:

Single Copies, for one year,	$4 00
Five Copies for one year,	18 00
Ten copies for one year,	33 00

☞ The COSMOPOLITE will be generally distributed among the Merchants and Planters of the South, and we will add, for their information, a few advertisements, at moderate rates.

☞ Liberal deductions will be made to booksellers and newsdealers.

☞ Newspapers publishing this prospectus and sending a marked copy to the undersigned, will receive a copy of the magazine. Address

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the
The North Carolina Presbyterian
will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, the 2nd of January next.

Confidently relying on the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains or expense in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise, has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the Church, also, partake of the progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the church to the importance and necessity of work; of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not, alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; by contributions from the rich own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause, for the benefit of all; by extending our circulat on throughout all our borders, and thus giving us the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all we hope for on earth.

HAMPSHIRE COAL.

CARGO OF 275 TONS HAMPSHIRE COAL DAily expected from Baltimore.

This coal is bituminous, and perhaps the best coal known for steam purposes, whether for locomotives or steamboats. It is used almost exclusively by Northern railroad companies and the Cunard Steamers. It is also represented as the best blacksmith's coal in the country, and is very extensively used in iron works for forging, etc. It is soft and friable, the fine coal being as good for use as the lump.

The attention of railroad companies, iron works and machine shops, is particularly invited to the importance of a trial of this coal.

The undersigned having been appointed agent for the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, will be prepared to furnish any quantity required, at a reasonable price.

Orders respectfully solicited.

Usury Laws.

We publish to-day the bill introduced in the House some days ago by Mr. Jenkins, of Warren, which the Judiciary Committee have duly considered and reported favorably upon, materially modifying the laws now in force on the subject of interest or usury. The bill fixes the uniform rate of interest as now at 6 per cent. but allows in all cases the parties to contract for the use of money, at a rate of interest not to exceed 10 per cent.

The object of the bill is not to change the ordinary rate of interest upon ordinary credits occurring in the regular course of business, but is designed to operate as an inducement upon capitalists to put their funds upon this market.

The love of money is so strong when it takes possession of a man, that nothing but legal restraint can check his avarice when once it has control of him. Moreover, the case with which a man can amass a fortune at an exorbitant interest, when the condition of the people, as at the present time demands it, certainly requires some check to his grasping rapacity. Yet, when money is in such demand all over the country at a higher rate of interest than the bill allows may be contracted for, it is doubtful whether the object for which it is proposed, can be accomplished.

Why not leave money to the chances of trade as in other articles of commerce? Why fix any limit to the contractors? Why not leave men entirely at their option to demand and pay what they please for the use of money? We confess that we have no sufficient answer to these enquiries, except the universal custom of the civilized world, which has always fixed restraints upon the avarice of mankind in this particular, while it has left him entirely at will to make money by speculation upon almost any other article, without limit. The value of every article is more or less determined by the use it may serve us. A horse, a cow, a house, a farm, or a barrel of corn, flour, pork or any thing else is very much controlled in the price by the supply and the demand, and the uses to which we may put the article. Money is as fluctuating in its value as any article of commerce, and very much depends upon the use we may make of it. If we can employ money to greater advantage in one business than another, why may we not pay more for it? If possible the reason operates more strongly in favor of paying for money what it is worth to us, than almost any other article, because of the superior uses which may be made of it in enriching ourselves by it than by any thing else.

We are not, however, fully satisfied that it is wise to swing loose from time honored customs. What would be the practical effect of abolishing all restraints upon the use of money, leave every person free to make his own bargain, we are not prepared to say. The condition of the people and the country demands capital. The only way to obtain it, is to pay as high a price for it as it will command elsewhere. If it can be employed here to as great advantage as elsewhere, why not allow borrowers to pay as much for it? The evils to accrue from this policy do not now strike us as formidable. If they do arise, it would be easy after a little experience, to shut down upon it and return to the old custom.

Members of Congress.

The impression has been very generally made that at the recent election in this State, only one member of Congress was elected who could take the test oath. A. H. Jones, Esq., was supposed to be that one. We learn that Mr. Jones, though a Union man throughout, is barred by the oath, simply because he was a candidate for office during the war.

We believe that every man elected is truly loyal, and that all of them are entitled to seats. No man in the State perhaps, was more publicly known as a Union man, than Lewis Hanes, Esq., the member elect from the 5th District, yet he would not take that oath. Though he was opposed to secession and the war, yet he is no enemy to the South, much less to the people of his State, sympathises with them fully in their sufferings and losses, and confides in their loyalty.

Col. JOHN E. BROWN.—This estimable gentleman and gallant officer was elected on Saturday, County Solicetor. Col. B. is a conscientious man, and a good lawyer—will discharge the duties impartially, and well merits the compliment.

The above merited compliment was paid by Capt. Waring of the Charlotte Times, who was defeated for the same office. We like that. It looks as if our friend of the Times believes, that there are other clever folks in the world besides himself, as we have no doubt he does. By the way, we think the County Court of Mecklenburg has done our friend of the Times a special favor, by defeating him for County Solicitor.—His paper will pay well if he devotes his time to it, and our experience is, an editor of a daily paper has precious little time for any thing else. Our friend of the Times will allow us to say that much, as proof of our friendship. "A word to the wise, &c."

Rev. Mr. Pritchard, Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Petersburg, says ten thousand dollars are still required to complete the repairs of his church.

Post Masters.

Under the existing law no Post Master or other officer of the government will be appointed who cannot take the "test oath." The Post Office department is anxious to extend the mail facilities of the State as fast as possible, but is barred by the law until Post Masters, mail carriers &c., can be obtained who can take the oath. Nor does it believe that the present oath will be modified or repealed speedily. It is therefore plain that mail facilities will not be afforded the people, until officers can be obtained who can take the oath.

It is probable that there are men who can take it, unknown to the public, but if the men cannot, there are many women who can conscientiously do so. We have heretofore expressed our belief, that as a general rule, our Post Masters should, generally be females. There are many who are fully competent, in whose integrity and promptness the public entirely rely, and we hope wherever they can supply this lack, they will come forward and tender their services.

For the information of all concerned we again publish the oath.

"I, ———, being appointed ——— at ———in the County of ———, and State of ———, do swear ——— that I will faithfully perform all the duties required of me, and abstain from every thing forbidden by the laws in relation to the establishment of the Post Office and Post Roads within the United States; and that I will honestly and truly account for and pay over any moneys belonging to the said United States, which may come into my possession or control. And I do further solemnly swear ——— that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the United States since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, counsel, or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have neither sought, nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, authority, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto. And I do further swear ——— that, to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign or domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter: So help me God."

Banks &c.

We were in hopes we should have had a glimpse at the "extraordinary" report of Mr. A. J. Jones, of which the reporters speak, made to the Senate on Saturday, on so much of the Governor's Message as referred to Banks and Banking, and which was ordered to be printed, but which order was reversed at the evening session, and the report committed to the more prudent care of the Judiciary Committee.

It is certainly a very strange construction of President Johnson's policy, that the legal consequences of the revolution forfeited civil government, and thereby all charters of corporations. President Johnson has most unequivocally held that the States, in their organic character, have not been affected by the revolution—that States cannot commit treason, and that all her legal obligations made without reference to, and in aid of, the revolution, are as binding upon her as if no revolution had occurred.

We shall not be surprised to hear next, that the war released all debtors, opened the doors of the prisons to all convicts, divorced every man from his wife and disinherited all his children. We hope to see this extraordinary document, and pay our respects to it.

Chapel Hill Mail.

The energetic special agent of the P. O. department in this State, Mr. Vassall, informs us that until a postmaster is appointed for Durham's, P. O. the mail matter for Chapel Hill will be sent to Hillsboro.

Superior Court Circuits.

We know not that it will be of any avail, but we give to-day a short article from a member of the bar in the 8th Judicial Circuit, urging a change in the Spring ridings of the Judges from the plan recently published.

Major Jack Downing.

The veritable Jack Downing, we believe, is dead. The author of the letter on our first page must be another man, though he professes to be the same. We give his letter as it indicates some traits, for what it is worth, without endorsing it.

USURY LAW.

The following bill introduced by Mr. Jenkins of Warren, has been favorably reported upon by the Judiciary Committee, and the bill was defeated on yesterday, but the vote was reconsidered.

A Bill to Amend Chapter 114, Revised Code Entitled Usury.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That chapter 114, Revised Code, entitled "Usury" be so amended so as to read as follows: No person upon any contract shall directly or indirectly take for loan of any moneys, wares, merchandise, or commodities, whatsoever, above the value of six dollars, by way of discount or interest, for the forbearance of one hundred dollars for one year, and so after that rate for a greater or less sum, or for a longer or shorter time, unless a greater rate of interest or discount be agreed upon between the parties in writing, not exceeding ten per cent., and all bonds, contracts, and assurances whatsoever, for the payment of any principal or money to be lent or covenanted to be performed upon, or for any usury whereupon or whereby there shall be reserved or taken above the rate of ten dollars on the hundred as aforesaid, shall be void, and every person who, upon any contract, shall take, accept and receive, by way of any corrupt bargain, loan, or other means whatsoever, for the bearing or giving day of payment, a rate of interest greater than six per cent., unless the same be specified in writing, and then not to exceed ten per cent., as specified above, shall forfeit and lose, for every such offence, double the value of the moneys, wares, merchandise, and other things, so lent, bargained or exchanged, the one moiety to the State, and the other to him who will sue for the same.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Feb. 5.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Atkinson of the Presbyterian church.

The Journal of Saturday was read and approved.

Mr. Ferebee introduced a memorial from the President and Directors of the Dismal Swamp Canal Company. Referred to committee on Finance.

Mr. F. asked leave to present a memorial from the President and Directors of the Dismal Swamp Canal Company, which had been forwarded to him with the request that he present the same to the Senate. The rules require that in all cases of the presentation of petitions, memorials, and other papers addressed to the Senate, a brief statement of the contents thereof shall be made by the introducer. He would accordingly state the substance and object of the memorial. To do so clearly, and to put it in a light to be understood by Senators, it would be necessary to go a little further than is usual into detail.

The Dismal Swamp Canal Company was chartered by the two States of North Carolina and Virginia—by the former in 1779, and by the latter in 1787. After many difficulties and delays, and by the application of all the profits for nearly fifty years, the work was completed, and rendered remunerative to the stock holders. But to facilitate the blessings of commerce, and to render the work even more beneficial to the public,—and this, too, at the instance of the United States Government—the dimensions of the canal were largely increased, and upwards of six miles were added to the length of the work. By this extension in part, at each end, the work is terminated in deeper water than was, in either respect, contemplated in its charter. Of course, the only return the Company received for their services to the public, was in the form of tolls paid by those who used the Canal. These were fixed in the charter of incorporation in 1787, and were based on the value of commodities at that time, and the facilities then given to transportation. As time and circumstances produced many changes in these particulars, the Legislature of Virginia in 1810 regarded the tolls of the company inadequate to meet these changes. Accordingly on the 23rd of January of that year, the Legislature of that State passed the act, a copy of which accompanies the memorial, altering the rate of tolls. As the canal lies partly in each of these States, this act of Virginia could not be enforced until a corresponding one had been passed by the Legislature of this State. This, it seems, has not been done, and of course the above recited act, to this time, has been a dead letter on her statute book, as no benefit has resulted to the company from it. The memorialists state that they have acted under the restrictions of the original tariff of tolls adopted in 1787. Since that time a large enhancement of prices has occurred, and paper money has entirely superceded coin or specie, in which, by the express requirements of the original charter, tolls were to be paid.

The prayer of the memorialists, therefore, is that, under these circumstances, this General Assembly will pass an act in confirmation of the act of Virginia, already referred to, of Jan. 23rd, 1810.

Accompanying the memorial is, also, a copy of the rates of tolls fixed by the Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Company. These two enterprizes may be justly regarded as rivals for public favor and patronage. The public good will be promoted by the success of both works. But the Legislature in bestowing its fostering care to protect and promote the interests of these two enterprizes, will not, at the same time, be unmindful of the interests of shippers—and that the farmer is largely concerned to have the tolls as low as is consistent with the success and reasonable profits of the two companies.

Mr. Ferebee asked that the memorial and the accompanying documents be referred to the committee on Finance, with instructions to report by bill or otherwise.

For the Sentinel.

Superior Courts.

To the Editors of the Sentinel:—My attention has been called to the arrangement published in your paper of a recent date, of the spring ridings of the Superior Courts. I address you this brief note, to ask if it is not possible to change the present arrangement? If this is not done, the result will be greatly injurious to the interests of private persons and the public. I presume the same objections exist to the present arrangement in the other circuits, which exist here in the 8th circuit, viz: that the presiding Judge has had so much business upon the civil and criminal dockets that he cannot possibly try or dispense of a great number of the important cases—having heretofore been of counsel for the parties on one side or the other.

It is important at this time to have a speedy and vigorous execution of the laws, and no impediment of any kind, ought to be thrown in the way which will cause delay in the administration of justice. The assignment of the judges to their spring circuits, I regard as well calculated to hinder and delay the prompt execution of the laws.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

A full attendance of the members of the Baptist church, male and female, is requested this, Tuesday, afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Judge D. G. Fowle, has appointed Capt. Fred. Phillips, Clerk and Master in Equity for Edgecombe County.

LARGE PIGS.—Dr. R. H. Dicken slaughtered in this county, says the Tarboro Southerner, a few days ago, two pigs, one weighing 675 pounds and the other 555 pounds. Who can beat these?

SHAD.—Two very fine shad were caught in our river at this place, on Friday 27th inst.—They sold for $2 apiece.—Tar. Southerner.

WILMINGTON AND WELDON RAILROAD STOCK.—Messrs. Cronly & Morris sold at auction, at Wilmington on Wednesday, eight shares of Wilmington and Weldon Railroad stock, at $40 per share.

The Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Wayne, was orgnized at Goldsboro' on Friday last.

W. K. Lane and thirty-five of the newly appointed magistrates were qualified.

Messrs. W. K. Lane, G. Thompson, Wm. Hooks, G. W. Collier and J. C. Slocumb were appointed the Special Court.

J. C. Slocumb, Esq., was appointed Register, J. V. Sherard, Esq., County Solicitor, E. A. Wright qualified as Superior Court Clerk, W. G. Hollowell as County Court Clerk, and Col. J. T. Kennedey as Sheriff.

The United African Twins are on exhibition at the Exchange Hotel, No. 12. The union of these twins is more remarkable than that of the Siamese Twins. They are very lively and somewhat intelligent and sing and waltz well.

NEWBERN.—The making this place a city, causes quite an amount of interest in the first charter election. There are several persons named for the mayoralty and councilmen.

TOURNAMENT.—The chivalry and beauty of Wilmington and vicinity, displayed themselves last week in a tournament near that place. We take the following from the Wilmington Dispatch:

The display of beauty and chivalry on the listed field yesterday, was truly magnificent.

Nine gallant knights—all booted and spurred—tilted for the honors, and with the following results, to wit: to M. C. Nixon, Knight of Lost Hope, was awarded first honor, and he named Miss Mary Augusta Wright, Queen of Love and Beauty; J. A. Devane, Unknown Knight, named Miss Florence D. Wright—first Maid of Honor; J. H. McKinne, Knight of the Land of Flowers, won third distinction, and named Miss Jennie Young, second Maid of Honor; J. J. Bowden, Knight of the Prairie, was the last winner, and he elected a "Prairie Flower" to illustrate his triumph.

The horsemanship was superb, surpassing anything that we have seen, since the glorious days of Hampton and other Confederate cavaliers. Before entering the lists, Hon. S. J. Person addressed the Knights in the chaste polished style peculiar to that gentleman. The tilt over, Fred. J. Poisson, Esq., gracefully presented the laurels to the successful champion, and Mr. Julius W. Wright, in behalf of the victor, acknowledged the compliment in a style equally felicitous. These ceremonies ended, the crowd dispersed and left for the city, with many pleasing anticipations of the coronation ball to follow.

[SPECIAL TO THE NEW YORK NEWS.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1, 1866.

There are unmistakable indications to-day that the warfare between the President and the Radicals, which the latter have courted, and the former has striven to avoid, cannot much longer be avoided. Mr. Stevens' speech yesterday was "the last feather that breaks the camel's back." It is evident to every one now that Thaddeus Stevens regards President Johnson as a foreigner and a usurper. As a citizen of a Territory that is not a State in the Union, and as having usurped powers unauthorized by the Constitution and the laws, and that he intends to have him impeached and brought to trial.—The Chronicle, the organ of Sumner and the Radicals, is out in a double leader this morning, applauding to the echo the ferocious and bloodthirsty sentiments of Mr. Stevens' speech, and declaring that, "It equals and recalls the grandest efforts of patriatic eloquence during the revolutionary war."

Up to this time the President has patiently borne with the Radicals for the sake of the country, in hopes that wiser councils would prevail. But he has determined now that he will no longer stand such abuse and vituperation. His proclamation declaring the Union restored and the Southern States entitled to their full representation in Congress has been written and will soon appear. It is approved by Mr. Seward and one other member of the Cabinet, and disapproved by Messrs. Stanton, Harlan and Speed.

As the Cabinet is to be unanimous in support of the President's policy, successors to these three officials will be found at once. It will then remain to be seen whether the President's policy or that of Mr. Stevens is to prevail. The President has no fears for the result, even in Congress. Mr. Raymond, it is understood, will assume the position of leader of the Conservative Republicans in the House, and Mr. Cowan of Pennsylvania will assume the same position in the Senate, and it is believed they can without difficulty, when the President's purposes are plainly announced, rally around them enough of the moderate Republicans to defeat, with the aid of the Democrats, all of the radical measures now before Congress, and to secure the complete triumph of the President's restoration policy. The task of protesting against the illegal and unconstitutional measures that are now being rushed through the Senate, for in the face of such a decided Radical majority, the opposition to such measures amount practically to little more than protest, seems to devolve chiefly upon the Hon. Garrett Davis of Kentucky, Mr. Cowan, Reverdy Johnson and Mr. Doolittle.

Bishop McIlvaine says he has understood that every Bishop in England has forbidden Colenso to officiate in his diocese.

Rev. James F. Smith, a Baptist minister, of Pike county, Missouri, has been tried for preaching without swearing.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.

SENATE.—Mr. Fessenden called up the joint resolution from the committee on reconstruction, proposing a constitutional amendment basing representation upon population, and excluding from representation all persons denie suffrage on account of color. Mr. Sumner spoke in opposition, and offered a substitute, declaring, that all persons shall be equal before the law, in civil and political rights. He occupied the attention of the Senate during the entire day, and, contended for perfect political and civil equality of all men. He will not conclude his speech until to-morrow.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.

HOUSE.—An amendment to the rules was offered, and laid on the table, setting apart one day in each week for the consideration of public business, to be called white man's day.

A resolution was offered instructing the Committee on Reconstruction to enquire into the expediency of levying a tax upon the rebellious States, in order to defray the expenses of keeping up a standing army among them, to keep peace.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill extending the powers of the Freedmen's Bureau, and an amendment adopted that operations be confined in those States where the writ of habeas corpus is suspended.

Circular from the Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.

A circular has been issued from the Treasury Department, rescinding former orders relative to the taxation of manufactured articles in the hands of manufacturers in the Southern States, which have hitherto been exempt from taxation. After the first of next month, such articles will be subject to the prescribed rates of taxation under the excise law, no matter what is the date of their manufacture.

SUMNER'S FORTHCOMING SPEECH.

Senator Sumner is busily engaged in the preparation of his forthcoming speech, which is expected to be his greatest effort of late years. His desk and pockets are crowded full of evidence which he has received, and from which he intends to argue that the South is in rebellion still.

EMIGRATION TO MEXICO.

The Government, it is said, is about to temporarily revoke the proclamation issued some ago, wherein emigrants were allowed to proceed to Mexico, and carry arms for their individual protection, provided, they did not go in companies or in such force as would make it appear that our neutrality was being violated. In so far as the Gulf Department is concerned, the revolution has already taken place, and it will be made to apply to Northern and Pacific ports as well, should it be found necessary.

TRIAL OF MR. DAVIS.

An industrious effort was made to-day to create the impression that the President has consented, or will consent to have Jefferson Davis tried by a military court. The fact is, however, that the President told General Butler yesterday that he never, under any circumstances, would consent to have Jefferson Davis tried in any other than the United States District Courts.

JUDGE CHASE AND A COLORED DELEGATION.

The colored delegation which recently arrived here from the different States of the Union for the purpose of pressing their claims to negro suffrage, accompanied by the Executive Committee of the National Equal Suffrage Association of this city, called on Chief Justice Chase last evening, and had a long and pleasant interview. Mr. Chase enjoined them to be without fear in the good work they had began, and to have faith in the successful issue of the movement they had inaugurated, and expressed his conviction that the President, although having his particular views, would eventually stand by them.

THE FREEMEN'S BUREAU.

The Republican of this evening (the Radical organ) is out in a long, strong and able editorial against Mr. Trumbull's bill to enlarge the powers of the Freedmen's Bureau. It denounces the bill as eminently anti-republican, and as founding a permanent and costly feudal system at the expense of the Government. It says, give this bureau two years, and we can never eradicate it. The appearance of the article creates a profound sensation.

IMMIGRANTS.—We observe that an arrangement has been made with the steamship lines between NewYork and Savannah, by which immigrants are only charged ten dollars passage money. This is a move in the right direction, and we would advise our people to immitate it. Georgia has gained an immense advantage over North Carolina by this act of liberality on the part of the owners of the steamships, and we hope its importance will not be underrated. There should be some organized system for the encouragement of immigration to North Carolina. Inducements should be held out to those who are willing to settle among us, if we would have them come.—Wil. Dispatch.

DISASTER.—We learn that the schooner Wave, William B. Bell, Master, which plied between this port and Hyde county, struck against an obstruction in Davis' strait, on the 29th ult., and sunk in a very short time after striking. A short while afterwards, a United States steam corvette came up to the scene of the disaster, (she having been near enough to witness the shipwreck of the schooner,) and succeeded in saving the Captain and crew of the Wave.—Wil. Journal.

GROWTH OF THE CATHOLICS.—The Catholic World says that within the last fifty years no church has been so prosperous in the United States:

"About two thousand churches and chapels have been built; an increase of one thousand and eight hundred clergymen—mostly from abroad—one hundred and fifty schools established for the catholic training of 18,000 boys and 33,000 girls. Moreover, there existed in 1857 sixty-six asylumns, with 4,963 orphans of both sexes; twenty-six hospitals, with three thousand beds; four insane asylums, besides many other charitable institutions, all established and supported by the private charity of Catholics."

COWPER & MOORE

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce, or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital actions of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow disease, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in dinduished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take, and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Dropsy, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no other. The sick want the best and there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

NOTICE.

I SHALL offer for sale, at public auction, on Tuesday, 27th of February next, the farm on which I now reside, situated partly in Nash, and partly in Edgecombe Counties, N. C. This farm contains nine hundred and seventy-five acres, of which one-third is in a high state of cultivation and well adapted to the growth of cotton, corn and oats. The other portion is well timbered and peculiarly valuable on account of the growing demand for lumber in the vicinity.

I will sell, at the same time, my stock of all kinds, including Horses, Mules, Cows and Calves, Sheep, Sows and Pigs, and all of good breeds.

—ALSO—

five hundred barrels of Corn, a large quantity of Fodder and Shucks, farming Utensils of all kinds, Wagons and Carts, a fine collection of Carpenters' Tools, and about twenty thousand pounds of Pork already killed and salted.

All this property will be sold under the hammer of Mr. J. J. Alston, well known as an accomplished auctioneer.

This property is peculiarly valuable, from the fact that it is within easy access of the Wilmington and Weldon Rail Road being only three miles from one station and six from another. Location remarkably healthy.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Ætna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.

All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assetts of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $5000, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8 819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15, 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57; total disbursements $527,805 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155,234 33.

In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—man competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

CIRCULAR

TO THE PUBLIC:

The undersigned has now ready for the press a volume, the result of the lucubrations of many years, entitled a "Short Treatise on Chronology in General, and especially on Classical Chronology." The work is not intended to be a chronological chart, nor yet a collection of dates and synchronistic tables. The author's aim has been to prepare a "Horn Book" of Chronology, containing the leading principles, laws and facts of that science.

The FIRST part treats of measuring time and adjusting its various divisions; the SECOND of fixing dates of historical events and arranging them in order; and the THIRD, of miscellaneous matters important to the chronologist.

UNDER THE FIRST DIVISION are discussed the day, the week, the month, the year and certain cycles used in computing the civil calendar and preparing the Almanac; the origin, history, nature, character, and various sub-divisions of each, especially among the ancients.

UNDER THE SECOND DIVISION the methods of ascertaining the dates or the time when they occurred; the actual dates of some important eras whose epochs as disputed; the most important epochs and eras which have been employed at different times and by different nations, including those which are still in use; and the actual dates of the most prominent events in classical chronology.

UNDER THE THIRD AND LAST DIVISION are considered the epochs and eras of less importance; a sketch of the chronology of India and of China; the principles of the art of mnemotechny as applied to dates, and the different systems of that art which have been propounded.

The author believes that a work successfully executed upon this plan, though it may not contain very much that is new, cannot but be useful and profitable, not only to the reading public, but also to the youth of our country, in the acquisition of classical and historical learning; and HISTORY will be THE STUDY of this age; it must always be the study of thoughtful men in times of revolution and great political changes, such as our country is at present undergoing.

The contributions of North Carolina, and of the Southern States of the Union generally, to American literature have heretofore been few, and for the most part, worthless. A few works of fiction and some fugitive poems include our past efforts; and with the excellent Latin Grammar, and the edition of Cæsar's Commentaries, prepared for the press by Col. Bingham—works the very best of their character which have ever fallen under our observation, and which, under more favorable circumstances, will yet win for their author that high reputation in his profession which he merits—our contributions to USEFUL LITERATURE are of the very humblest character. Under such circumstances this book is, with some confidence, presented for public patronage.

The author proposes to publish by subscription. The cost of publication will be fifteen hundred dollars, or more. The book contains about two hundred and fifty 12 mo. pages. It will be brought out in the best style of one of our best American publishers, as to type, paper and binding. The cost of single copies delivered will be $2.50.

Persons desiring to subscribe can communicate with the undersigned at Raleigh, but subscription lists will be opened at various places of business in Raleigh and other towns in the State. Subscriptions will be required in cash as essential to the success of the enterprise. Editors who will give this Circular a few insertions and forward a copy of their papers containing it to the author, will be furnished with a copy of the book.

The volume will be placed in the hands of the publisher as soon as the author's success is at all assured, and will be issued to subscribers a few weeks thereafter.

TO THIS CELEBRATED SAFE was awarded the GOLD MEDAL, at the World's Fair in London, in 1851.

NOTICE.—This celebrated Fire Proof safe is no longer made and sold by SILAS C HERRING, his license to make and sell them having expired.

The thousands of Certificates from Merchants, Bankers and Mechanics of all trades, that have been given in favor of this the only true "SALAMANDER," renders it useless for the subscribers to multiply words in its favor, as full thirty thousand of "WILDER'S PATENT SALAMANDER SAFES," have been manufactured and sold in the United States; and, in almost every large fire that has taken place during the last seventeen years, these Safes have been subjected to the severest tests, and not one of the "Genuine Salamanders" has ever been destroyed.

Safes sold at New York price, with the freight to Wilmington added. No commission charged in Wilmington. We are prepared to take orders for these celebrated Safes. Samples can be seen at our office in a few days.

Every Merchant should have one of these cheap and secure Safes.

Desirable Farm for Sale.

THE PLANTATION SITUATED ABOUT TWO and a half miles from the village of Magnolia on the Wilmington and Weldon R. R., between that place and Kenansville, and known as "Barbacue," is offered for sale. The tract contains 360 acres, 100 of which are cleared and have been under cultivation, producing excellent Corn, Wheat, potatoes, &c. A portion of the land is also well adapted to the culture of cotton. An inexhaustible bed of Marl, a large spring of as good water as can be found in the State, and a never failing stream, running through the center of the cleared land, are among the attractions of the place.

The timbered portion of the land being nearest the Rail Road, and the entire place being easy of access to a first rate market, make it a highly desirable location for growing produce, raising stock and selling timber. Any one having the cash, can procure a bargain by applying immediately to
